We Are Hiring

Manager, Public Health Communications and Engagement

Public Health and Emergency Services

Position Type
Temporary
(6-12 months)

Salary
$121,700.00 - $143,170.00

Hybrid Eligible Work Arrangement
Yes

Job Summary

Reporting to the Public Health Chief of Staff, the Manager, Public Health Communications and Engagement leads strategic communications, branding, internal engagement, and community outreach to advance public health priorities and health equity. As a member of the Senior Leadership Team, the Manager provides strategic communications advice and support to departmental leadership, oversees a team of communications and engagement professionals, and leads initiatives that strengthen stakeholder relationships and organizational culture.

Minimum Requirements

- University degree and required Master's degree in Communications, Public Relations, Journalism, Health Sciences or a related discipline, with a minimum of 8 years of related professional experience (public health or healthcare experience preferred).
- 5 years of leadership experience in a large, complex organization preferred, with demonstrated experience managing relationships with elected officials at the municipal, provincial and federal levels.

Ready to Apply?

To view the full job description and requirements, visit our Careers page. Applications will be accepted to [Position Title (JO 46636) up to 11:59 p.m. on [December 8, 2026].

About Us

Niagara Region serves a diverse urban and rural population of more than 475,000 and is committed to building a strong and prosperous Niagara. Collaborating with 12 local municipalities and community partners, the Region delivers high-quality programs and services that supports communities. Nestled between Lakes Erie and Ontario, Niagara is known for its fertile farmland, majestic Niagara Falls, vibrant cities, wine industry, and rich history and culture.