We Are Hiring

Senior Communications Specialist

Public Health and Emergency Services

Position Type
Permanent

Salary
$105,330.00 - $123,910.00

Hybrid Eligible Work Arrangement
Yes

Job Summary

Reporting to the Manager of Communications and Engagement, the Senior Communications Specialist enhances Public Health and corporate communication and engagement strategic initiatives by providing communications counsel and tactical support to internal and external clients. The role provides leadership and expertise in the areas of PR, communications resource development, internal communications and staff engagement, health communications, media relations, and crisis and emergency response communication.

Minimum Requirements

- Post-secondary diploma, degree or equivalent in communications, public relations, journalism, health sciences or related discipline5 years of leadership experience in a large, complex organization preferred, with demonstrated experience managing relationships with elected officials at the municipal, provincial and federal levels.
- 5 or more years' professional experience in issues management, internal communications and engagement, public relations, public affairs/relations, social marketing, community consultation and media relations.

Ready to Apply?

To view the full job description and requirements, visit our Careers page. Applications will be accepted to [Position Title (JO 46641) up to 11:59 p.m. on [December 8, 2026].

About Us

Niagara Region serves a diverse urban and rural population of more than 475,000 and is committed to building a strong and prosperous Niagara. Collaborating with 12 local municipalities and community partners, the Region delivers high-quality programs and services that supports communities. Nestled between Lakes Erie and Ontario, Niagara is known for its fertile farmland, majestic Niagara Falls, vibrant cities, wine industry, and rich history and culture.