Recreation Technicians Part-time

The Active Living & Culture division provides over 4,000 programs and services that support the health, fitness and leisure pursuits of residents of Kelowna.

We are currently seeking Part-time Recreation Technicians to assist in the development and delivery of various activities such as group child care, sporting leagues and tournaments, multi-age recreation programming, events, volunteer management, cultural service support, community development and recreation centre facility operations.

This is an active, community-focused role where your creativity and experience using publishing software is an asset for creating brochures and advertising our programs. Excellent customer service skills, the ability to problem-solve, and the flexibility to work varied shifts are essential in assisting customers of all ages.
