

Careers

Airport Environment Manager

Join our dynamic team!

Help Kelowna International Airport become the Airport of the Future and to meet our goal of being Carbon Neutral by 2030! Our diverse and inclusive team strives to innovate to make things better, work as one team, serve proudly, and lead responsibly. As the The Airport Environment Manager you will be responsible for the management and oversight of YLW's environment portfolio, including certification, inspection, and audit programs. You will be responsible for the implementation and oversight of the Environment Management System, a comprehensive system consisting of a number of programs consisting of: 1) Surface Water; 2) Contaminated Sites; 3) Petroleum Storage Tanks; 4) Environmental Emergency Response and Preparedness; 5) GHG and Climate Change; 6) Potable and Industrial Water Use; 7) Hazardous and Regulated Materials; 8) Habitat and Biodiversity; 9) Environment and the Community; 10) Construction and Development; and 11) Waste. You will engage with federal, provincial, and municipal regulatory bodies as required.

You have a post-secondary degree or a combination of post-secondary education and training in one of the following areas: Environmental Management, Aviation Studies, or Airport Management. You have at least three (3) years of recent experience working in a similar complex, highly regulated environment and preferably two (2) years of relevant airport experience. Preference may be given to applicants with Accredited Airport Executive (AAE), Environmental Professional (EP), Registered Professional Biologist (RP Bio), or similar designation(s) in Airport Operations and/or Environmental Management. You have working knowledge of Federal and Provincial environmental regulations and guidelines (Species at Risk, Glycol, Water Quality, Migratory Birds, etc.), and Carbon Reduction Strategies to meet regulated requirements and YLW goals. You are a proven influential leader with excellent communication, teambuilding, and interpersonal skills. You are detail oriented, with excellent organizational skills and you have the ability to balance multiple priorities simultaneously. Auditing experience would be an asset.

Live, work and play in one of Canada's fastest growing cities. Kelowna boasts miles of lake access, public areas and outdoor recreation opportunities, a vibrant downtown and cultural scene, healthy and connected neighbourhoods, and a world-renowned College and University. You are only a quick link to the world via the Kelowna International Airport. Grow your career in an organization that supports employee work-life balance and career and professional development. This exempt position offers a salary range of $103,000 to $120,000, employer-paid comprehensive benefits, an earned day off program, paid vacation and one of Canada's top pension plans.

Apply online at kelowna.ca/careers by April 19, 2024