

BYLAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER

The City of Campbell River is seeking a Bylaw Enforcement Officer to join their team.

Naturally, Campbell River – Located on Vancouver Island, surrounded by the ocean and majestic mountains, the City of Campbell River offers a rare combination of a welcoming small-town feel with large-city amenities. From summer markets and street events to an active arts and culture community to year-round, world-class recreational opportunities, the Campbell River lifestyle is unparalleled. We are a 45-minute drive from the winter and summer activities of Mount Washington, and just minutes from more than 100 km of all levels of mountain biking and hiking trails, plus easy access to the ocean, rivers and lakes for sports fishing, kayaking, paddle boarding and whale watching.*

The role – working as part of the bylaw enforcement team, the Bylaw Enforcement Officer performs administrative, inspectional, investigative, and regulatory work related to enforcement of specific bylaws. The incumbent coordinates investigations and assists other departments with their bylaw enforcement issues. The work involves considerable public relations contact and requires the exercise of independent judgment, action, tact and diplomacy within policy, regulation, and bylaw limits.

Our ideal candidate will have -

- Three (3) years of bylaw enforcement, policing and/or regulatory enforcement experience.
- Bylaw Compliance, Enforcement and Investigative Skills Level I & II training courses from the Justice Institute of BC or equivalent training from a recognized training institute.
- Must possess and maintain a valid BC driver's licence and provide and maintain a clear driver's abstract, as per City policy.
- Must qualify to be appointed as a bylaw enforcement officer as described in the BC Police Act.

The rate of pay for this permanent, full-time, CUPE bargaining unit position is $36.50 per hour based on a 35-hour work week and includes a comprehensive benefits package.
