

We are looking for an individual with excellent time management skills, who loves working with the details, and enjoys conducting data quality audits.

The NWPD is a mid-sized police department with over 200 employees. We are committed to having a professional and supportive workplace promoting employee equity, wellness, and fulfillment. We are a hard-working and welcoming team focused on doing great work and serving our community.

What your key role will be

As the CPIC Operator, you will contribute to our continued success by being responsible for CPIC record transactions and entries as well as ensuring the completeness, currency, and validity of CPIC records. In addition to this, your role includes, but is not limited to:

Data Management: You'll review police occurrence files, release documents, and JUSTIN sentencing documents in order to ensure the required information is entered on CPIC accurately. You'll also perform internal audits that comply with policies and procedures.

Attention to Detail: You'll be happiest when working with the details that support the bigger picture while also taking great pride in rolling up your sleeves to get even the smallest of tasks done.

Communication: You'll have excellent communication and active listening skills as well as the ability to convey information clearly and simply while ensuring you understand directions and information.

Confidentiality: You'll navigate your role while exercising considerable confidentiality, tact, and diplomacy. You'll have a keen sense and awareness of the rules and procedures with respect to the handling of confidential information.

Decision Making: You'll have strong decision-making skills that allow you to make confident assessments of policies and procedures and apply them accordingly to police files.

Team Player: You'll genuinely enjoy engaging with your teammates to get the work done. You believe in the importance of building and maintaining strong working relationships. You'll have a willingness to partner with and work alongside the police.

Time Management: You'll manage your time and resources to ensure work is completed efficiently and with minimal supervision.

What you bring to this role

You will have experience and success in many of the following areas:

- You have completed Grade 12
- You have top-notch data management and organizational skills
- You are motivated, compassionate, and empathetic with a genuine desire to help others
