CURRENT PLANNING

PLANNER / PLANNING ANALYST One Temporary Full Time Position (Approximately 18 months)

The District of Saanich is the largest municipality on beautiful Vancouver Island, blending urban and rural environment and home to approximately 124,000 citizens. Saanich is known for its progressive initiatives in the areas of housing and community planning and has been a climate action leader for many years.

Saanich is seeking a Planner or Planning Analyst to join our Current Planning team for an 18-month term position. The successful candidate will be self-motivated with strong skills in policy analysis, urban design, written and verbal communication, and customer service. The individual will be team focused, working with a diverse group of professionals to implement our Official Community Plan.

Planner: You will undertake a wide variety of municipal planning work including reviewing development applications, undertaking policy analysis and design review; conducting research, and preparing reports and correspondence. Requirements include a Master's Degree in Planning, five years' experience in planning (preferably municipal planning); membership in the Canadian Institute of Planners.

Planning Analyst: You may also be interested in gaining valuable experience in a Planning Analyst role. Responsibilities are varied and include providing support to Current Planners, reviewing development applications, completing plan checks, conducting research and analysis, and preparing reports and correspondence. Requirements include a Master's degree in planning or related discipline, and two years of Planning experience.

Candidates will be assessed based on their qualifications (including a combination of education and experience).

This is a C.U.P.E. Local 2011 position with a wage of either $56.08 per hour (Planner) or $49.41 (Planning Analyst), an excellent benefits package and a generous pension plan.
