

Land your dream job!

The City processes over 250 land transactions a year in support of the development of city projects such as roads, parks, and civic facilities. Use your talents to evaluate, appraise, buy, sell and lease/rent land and buildings on behalf of the City.

As an experienced leader, problem solver, communicator and negotiator with related post-secondary diploma or degree, you will be relied on as the City's technical expert when providing advice to City departments and the general public on all municipal land matters. Candidates must be eligible for membership in Real Estate or Appraisal Institutes (RIBC, AACI), BOMA or International Right of Way Association (IRWA).
