

Careers

Financial Reporting Supervisor

make cents of accountability

Join our Financial Services team and help create Kelowna as a City of the Future. Our diverse and dynamic team strives to innovate to make things better, work as one team, serve proudly and lead responsibly.

We are looking for a Financial Reporting Supervisor to be responsible for the direction, coordination and preparation of the corporate financial reporting to internal and external stakeholders. Duties include internal and external financial reporting, including annual statutory reporting and corresponding audit, developing managing financial models, benchmarking and analysis. This position will support strategic informed decision making through the assessment, development and implementation of timely financial reporting.

Qualifications

Candidates should have a bachelor's degree in business or a related field and a CPA designation with a minimum of five (5) years of relevant experience, preferably in local government finance. In-depth knowledge of and experience with accounting standards (PSAB, GAAP) is required. Familiarity with the Community Charter/Local Government Act, Bylaws, Council policies and Provincial Ministry reporting requirements and practices as well as knowledge of Municipal Benchmarking and familiarity with PC based software (Excel, Word) is an asset. The successful candidate will have excellent strategic thinking along with strong communication, teambuilding, and interpersonal skills to effectively supervise staff and build strong working relationships and partnerships with internal and external stakeholders.

Live, work and play in one of Canada's fastest growing cities. Kelowna boasts miles of lake access, public areas and outdoor recreation opportunities, a vibrant downtown and cultural scene, healthy and connected neighbourhoods, and a world-renowned College and University. You're only a quick link to the world via the Kelowna International Airport.

Grow your career in an organization that supports employee work-life balance and career and professional development. This exempt position offers a salary range of $97,700 to $114,000, employer-paid comprehensive benefits, an earned day off program, paid vacation and one of Canada's top pension plans.

The City of Kelowna is committed to being an organization that values and reflects its community's diverse population, and to fostering an equitable, inclusive and progressive work environment where everyone can be their authentic self and feels a sense of belonging.

For further information or to apply, please check our website at www.kelowna.ca/careers

Applications must be received by end of day January 10, 2025.

Applicants not contacted within three weeks of the closing date are thanked for their interest