The City of New Westminster's Parks and Recreation Department is looking for a friendly, organized, patient, and experienced Recreation Facility Clerk Supervisor to join the team at Century House, a community centre targeted to seniors programs and services. As a member of the team, you will thrive in a fast-paced recreation environment where excellence in customer service is essential. In this role, you will plan, assign, check, supervise, schedule, and participate in the work of a moderate sized group of staff and senior volunteers engaged in front-line services. These include customer service, cashiering, and processing admissions, registrations, and rentals.

Key responsibilities include:

- Preparing and maintaining staff timesheets and various reports for payroll.
- Participating in recruitment and employee performance evaluations
- Assigning shifts and daily duties to staff to ensure smooth front-desk operations.
- Providing information and assistance to the public regarding classes, activities, schedules, fees, refunds, and transfers.
- Balancing and reconciling cash and cheque payments for registrations, fees, and rentals.
- Processions accounts payable and accounts receivable
- Preparing and auditing daily revenue reports.
- Ordering and tracking office supplies
- Training, supporting, and educating staff on the use of Xplor Recreation
- Developing and maintaining procedural manuals and operational guidelines
- Supports aspects of financial and program administration for the Century House partner association.

If you have the following qualifications and attributes, we want to hear from you:

- Completion of Grade 12 or equivalent, including or supplemented by commercial courses- preferably elementary accounting and word processing. Sound related experience, or an equivalent combination of education and experience will be considered.
- Sound knowledge of community recreation principles and objectives.
- Advanced computer skills relevant to the role, including familiarity with Microsoft Office, Xplor Recreation, Kronos, and POS systems.
- Ability to supervise others effectively, make sound decisions, and resolve problems in accordance with City policies and procedures.
- Ability to assess and implement new or improved systems and processes that increase efficiency, including staffing and facility scheduling.
- Ability to carry out accounting and audit functions for cash receipts from program registrations, bookings, and events.
- Proven ability to meet deadlines and work efficiently during peak times.
- Capacity to learn and train others on a variety of clerical procedures and ensure work is completed accurately and consistently.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to interact courteously and effectively with the public, staff, and volunteers.
- Ability to perform both supervisory and clerical duties independently, with minimal direction.
- The successful candidate must be able to pass and maintain a clear Police Information Check with Vulnerable Sector Check.

May need to flex schedule to evenings on occasion to meet operational needs
