Do You Have a Passion for Protecting Animals and Public Safety?

About our community:

Boasting a high quality of life and standard of living, Prince George has all the amenities of a large city mixed with the friendliness and appeal of a smaller community. It is a regional centre for close to 326,000 people for shopping, education, health care, the arts, and sports. Prince George's central location in the province offers work/life balance with unparalleled access to four-season outdoor recreation activities that are complemented by a full range of urban amenities and a comprehensive transportation infrastructure that connects residents, businesses, resources, and agricultural products to markets around the world. And it is only a short drive to almost anywhere in Prince George – spend less time commuting and more time doing what matters most to you! Discover all these opportunities and more!

About our organization:

The City of Prince George is committed to ensuring a positive, well-balanced work environment for its employees. With opportunities for employee training, wellness programs and professional development the City of Prince George offers a safe and supportive workplace in which to serve our community.

About the opportunity:

If you have strong judgment, are skilled at managing difficult situations, and have experience working with animals, we have a rewarding opportunity for you in our Bylaw Services Division! In this role, you will handle animal-related complaints, explain and enforce bylaw requirements, and issue notices or lay charges as needed. Your duties will include patrolling the city, including parks and trails, to ensure compliance with animal control regulations. This position is physically demanding, requiring you to apprehend animals and work outdoors in all weather conditions. Shift work is required. The current shift is two (2) days, two (2) afternoons four (4) days on, and four (4) days off. 7 am-7 pm, 1 pm-11 pm.

About your background:

You have completed Grade 12 and ideally have the Bylaw Enforcement and Investigative Skills Certificate Program, Level 1, from the Justice Institute of BC. Additionally, you should have at least one year of experience in a regulatory environment, with a strong background in investigative and enforcement work. Experience in handling and apprehending potentially aggressive or dangerous animals would be an asset. The successful candidate will be required to complete the Animal Control Basic Training Online Certificate Program from Langara College within one year of hire. A valid full privilege Class 5 driver's license (or out of province equivalent) is required. You must also be able to obtain and maintain a clear Police Information Check for offenses relevant to this position.

Why You Will Love Working for our Bylaw Services team at the City of Prince George:

- Contribute to the overall safety and security of the citizens of Prince George.
- Join the Bylaw Services team and educate the public about animal bylaws.
- Enjoy a competitive wage of $36.35 - $37.17 per hour plus a comprehensive benefits and pension package.
