Help Facilitate Excellence Through Team Leadership!

About our community:

Boasting a high quality of life and standard of living, Prince George has all the amenities of a large city mixed with the friendliness and appeal of a smaller community. It is a regional centre for close to 326,000 people for shopping, education, health care, the arts, and sports. Prince George's central location in the province offers work/life balance with unparalleled access to four-season outdoor recreation activities that are complemented by a full range of urban amenities and a comprehensive transportation infrastructure that connects residents, businesses, resources, and agricultural products to markets around the world. And it is only a short drive to almost anywhere in Prince George – spend less time commuting and more time doing what matters most to you! Discover all these opportunities and more!

About our organization:

The City of Prince George is committed to ensuring a positive, well-balanced work environment for its employees. With opportunities for employee training, wellness programs, and professional development, the City of Prince George offers a safe and supportive workplace in which to serve our community.

About the opportunity:

Reporting to the Roads Operations Supervisor, the incumbent provides leadership to operational staff engaged in Roads Operations activities. The position is responsible for assigning, supervising, and evaluating the work of several groups of skilled workers, equipment and vehicle operators, and labourers, engaged in fairly complex construction and maintenance tasks. The incumbent is responsible for coordinating projects with other City divisions and proactively contributing to the division's short-term and long-range plans. Considerable independence and judgement are required in dealing with workplace problems and issues. This is a working Foreman's position, and the incumbent is expected to perform physical activities on a regular basis. Performs related duties as required.

About your background:

To be eligible, candidates must have completed Grade 12 and participated in a "Management Skills for Supervisors" training program, or an equivalent leadership program. A minimum of five years of experience directly related to street operations is required, along with experience in budget preparation, project coordination, and planning activities. Additionally, candidates should have at least four years of supervisory experience in a unionized environment. Applicants should possess considerable knowledge of the theories, practices, methods, equipment, and tools used in street operations, as well as skills in the care and utilization of the relevant equipment and tools. The ability to lead, train, supervise, and evaluate staff is essential. The successful applicant must be able to obtain and maintain a clear Police Information Check for offences related to the position. A valid, full privilege Class 5 BC driver's license (or out of province equivalent) is also required.

Why you will love working for our Roads & Fleet team at the City of Prince George:

- Lead skilled teams, make strategic decisions, and see the direct results of your leadership.
- Use your knowledge in an engaging and dynamic role.
- Enjoy a competitive wage of $45.36 per hour plus a comprehensive benefits and pension plan.
