And it is only a short drive to almost anywhere in Prince George – spend less time commuting and more time doing what matters most to you! Discover all these opportunities and more!

About our organization:

The City of Prince George is committed to ensuring a positive, well-balanced work environment for its employees. With opportunities for employee training, wellness programs and professional development the City of Prince George offers a safe and supportive workplace in which to serve our community.

About the opportunity:

In this casual role, you will supervise and care for individuals detained at the RCMP Detachment while awaiting court hearings, return to parents, or transfer to a correctional or penal institution. Responsibilities include completing required prisoner documentation and maintaining the cleanliness of jail cells and the guardroom. The position may involve exposure to potentially violent or hostile individuals, unpleasant working conditions, and bodily fluids. Shifts vary and may include 4 to 12 consecutive hours, split shifts of two (2) hours during the day and two (2) hours at night, or on-call work as required.

About Your Background:

The successful candidate will possess a Grade 12 diploma, along with relevant experience that demonstrates the ability to effectively supervise and guard individuals. A valid Level 1 First Aid certificate, including CPR and AED training, is required. Candidates must also have completed formal training in conflict resolution or in managing hostile or challenging individuals. This position requires flexibility and availability to work a variety of shifts. As a condition of employment, candidates must be able to obtain and maintain an RCMP Reliability Status. The purpose of this posting is to establish a contingency list of pre-qualified candidates to fill current and future vacancies as they arise. Applications will be reviewed on an ongoing basis.

Why You Will Love Working for our Police Support Services team at the City of Prince George:

- Play a vital role in ensuring the safety and security of people in your care.
- Work with a team dedicated to serving the community.
- Enjoy a competitive wage of $38.51 to $39.34 per hour plus 12% in lieu of benefits.
