Make a positive Impact in Our Community and Ensure Public Safety

About our community:

Boasting a high quality of life and standard of living, Prince George has all the amenities of a large city mixed with the friendliness and appeal of a smaller community. It is a regional centre for close to 326,000 people for shopping, education, health care, the arts, and sports. Prince George's central location in the province offers work/life balance with unparalleled access to four-season outdoor recreation activities that are complemented by a full range of urban amenities and a comprehensive transportation infrastructure that connects residents, businesses, resources, and agricultural products to markets around the world. And it is only a short drive to almost anywhere in Prince George – spend less time commuting and more time doing what matters most to you! Discover all these opportunities and more!

About our organization:

The City of Prince George is committed to ensuring a positive, well-balanced work environment for its employees. With opportunities for employee training, wellness programs, and professional development the City of Prince George offers a safe and supportive workplace in which to serve our community.

About the opportunity:

You will support the Bylaw Services Division in enforcing municipal bylaws to maintain the safety and livability of the City of Prince George. Responsibilities include investigating complaints, applying bylaw requirements, and taking enforcement actions such as issuing notices and tickets. You'll patrol city parks and trails, respond to bylaw violations, and may work with a downtown team focused on public safety and cleanliness. Additional tasks include contributing to bylaw amendments and maintaining reports. This position requires work outside of regular office hours in both office and outdoor settings, often in varying weather conditions. This is a term position, and the duration is unknown.

About your background:

In addition to completing Grade 12, you have successfully completed the Level 1 Bylaw Enforcement and Investigative Skills Certificate Program through the Justice Institute of BC or an equivalent program, with the ability to obtain the Level 2 Certificate within 24 months of hire. You possess formal training in conflict resolution techniques and bring a minimum of two years' experience in a regulatory environment, including the interpretation and enforcement of laws, bylaws, and regulations, conducting investigations, and working with paralegal or court procedures. You also have demonstrated experience dealing face-to-face with hostile or challenging individuals. Experience as a Peace Officer is considered an asset. You have a valid Class 5 BC driver's license (or out-of-province equivalent). A Police Information Check for offences related to the position is required. Shift work is required. The current shift is two (2) days, two (2) afternoons four (4) days on, and four (4) days off. 7 am-7 pm, 1 pm-11 pm.

Why you will love working for our Bylaw Services team at the City of Prince George:

- Educate our citizens on City bylaws in this high-demand job that is never routine!
- Enjoy a competitive wage of $42.37- $43.41 per hour plus an excellent benefits and pension package. Term positions expected to last 6 months or longer are eligible for benefits
