

Located in the heart of Southwestern Ontario, Norfolk County is where big vision meets unlimited potential.

As one of Ontario's largest single-tier municipalities and home to over 70,000 people, Norfolk is bold, diverse, and proudly local - a municipality that thrives on innovation, collaboration, and connection. Here, you'll find endless opportunities to grow your skills, expand your ideas, and shape your career.

Big vision. Real opportunities. Unlimited potential. That's Norfolk.

As the Development Compliance Technologist, you will review and approve engineering designs for development projects, ensuring municipal infrastructure meets standards. You'll inspect sites, manage agreements, and coordinate with developers, consultants, and the public to support safe, compliant growth and high-quality community infrastructure across the County.
