

Located in the heart of Southwestern Ontario, Norfolk County is where big vision meets unlimited potential.

As one of Ontario's largest single-tier municipalities and home to over 70,000 people, Norfolk is bold, diverse, and proudly local - a municipality that thrives on innovation, collaboration, and connection. Here, you'll find endless opportunities to grow your skills, expand your ideas, and shape your career.

Big vision. Real opportunities. Unlimited potential. That's Norfolk.

As the Traffic and Transportation Technologist, you will support the planning, operation, and improvement of Norfolk County's transportation network by analyzing traffic and collision data, investigating road safety concerns, and developing technical recommendations. You'll lead transportation programs and help deliver projects that enhance roadway safety, mobility, and public confidence in the County's infrastructure.
