Position Overview

The City of Kamloops is seeking a permanent, full-time Real Estate Coordinator to join our team. As part of the Real Estate division, this position will be deeply integrated in the lease, purchase, sale and administration of City and City-required properties. The successful candidate will have a thorough knowledge of the legal documents associated with land development and property management, they will advise internal departments on real estate matters, and will draft legal documents related to land interests. If you possess related education and experience, this could be your next career and we want to hear from you, so apply today!

Welcome to the vibrant heart of British Columbia, where the Thompson River winds through breathtaking landscapes and a community rich in history, culture, and opportunity. Known as Canada's Tournament Capital, Kamloops is celebrated for its warm hospitality, strong sense of community, and active lifestyle. Nestled in the Thompson Valley and surrounded by the rugged beauty of the Interior Plateau, Kamloops offers the perfect balance of urban convenience and outdoor adventure. Explore a lively downtown filled with unique shops, local restaurants, and cultural attractions, or take advantage of the city's extensive network of parks, trails, and recreational amenities.

Working for the City of Kamloops means making a meaningful impact on the community while enjoying the exceptional lifestyle the region has to offer. As a City employee, you can take pride in helping create and sustain the services, spaces, and experiences that make Kamloops a great place to live, work, and play. You'll also have access to a range of employee well-being programs, including resources that support mental wellness, onsite fitness facilities, and the Wellness Works program, which promotes a healthy and balanced workplace.

The successful candidate must have the following qualifications:

1. Completion of a minimum of one (1) year in a Real Estate Licensing Program or Legal Assistant Program.
2. Minimum three (3) years' previous experience within real estate, real estate development, or property records management fields.
3. Minimum one (1) years' experience producing detailed legal documents related to land interests with a high degree of accuracy.
4. Valid BC Class 5 Driver's Licence.
