Transportation Planner

Come help shape Kelowna's transportation future!

Join the City of Kelowna's Integrated Transportation team as a Transportation Planner and help shape a safe, connected and sustainable transportation system for a growing community.

As part of the Strategic Transportation Planning team, you will use data, GIS and modelling to support multimodal transportation planning and evidence-based decision-making. Your work may span long-range and corridor planning, network analysis, active transportation, transit, transportation demand forecasting, and land use and development planning.

To succeed in this role, you will have a University Degree in Planning, Civil or Transportation Engineering, or a related discipline, along with four years of relevant transportation planning experience. You are an analytical problem solver who can turn complex technical information into clear insights and recommendations. Experience in transportation demand forecasting, transit planning, active transportation planning or transportation data analytics is an asset.

You are a strong communicator and collaborative team member with experience working on multidisciplinary projects. Professional membership or eligibility with a relevant planning, engineering or transportation professional organization is an asset.

Help create Kelowna as a City of the Future. Our diverse and dynamic team strives to innovate to make things better, work as one team, serve proudly and lead responsibly. Live, work and play in one of Canada's fastest growing cities. Kelowna boasts miles of lake access, public areas and outdoor recreation opportunities, a vibrant downtown and cultural scene, healthy and connected neighbourhoods, and a world-renowned College and University. You're only a quick link to the world via the Kelowna International Airport

Grow your career in an organization that supports employee work-life balance and career and professional development. This is a CUPE bargaining unit position with an hourly rate starting at $49.66 per hour plus employer-paid comprehensive benefits, an earned day off program, paid vacation and one of Canada's top pension plans.

The City of Kelowna is committed to being an organization that values and reflects its community's diverse population, and to fostering an equitable, inclusive and progressive work environment where everyone can be their authentic self and feels a sense of belonging.
