EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Non-Union Instructor – Auxiliary

SCOPE

Are you passionate about music and inspiring young children through creative learning experiences? Join the City of Surrey's Culture division and help enrich our community through high-quality performing arts programs. We are seeking an enthusiastic and creative Preschool Music Instructor to lead engaging group music classes for infants, toddlers, and preschool-aged children at a variety of sites within Surrey. This is an exciting opportunity for a skilled music educator who enjoys working with young children and their caregivers in a community-based setting.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Develop and deliver age-appropriate family music programs for children from 3 months to 5 years of age.
- Lead interactive activities including songs, musical rhymes, movement-based learning, and creative musical play.
- Create a safe, inclusive, and supportive learning environment for young children and their caregivers.
- Prepare and submit lesson plans and supply lists or programs.
- Independently set up, maintain, and clean up program spaces and equipment.
- Incorporate a variety of instruments, musical styles, and sensory-based activities into lessons.
- Foster positive relationships with participants, caregivers, and staff.

Required skills include:

- Ability to lead group music classes with accompaniment on a musical instrument (piano, guitar, or ukulele preferred).
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to engage both children and adults.
- Excellent organizational and problem-solving abilities.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively as part of a team.
- Knowledge of the principles of early childhood music education and development, and the ability to apply those in a structured classroom environment.
