EMPLOYMENT STATUS

Non-Union – Instructor

SCOPE

Are you passionate about ceramic arts and enjoy teaching various skill levels and techniques? Join the City of Surrey's Culture Division and contribute to high-quality arts education in the community.

Ceramic arts instruction may include, but is not limited to, wheel throwing, hand building, and surface decorating. Instructors may teach preschool, children, youth, and/or adult participants throughout the year, and may also choose to instruct youth and children's camps during spring break and summer.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide clear, thorough, and patient instruction to registrants.
- Deliver course content that fosters technical skill building and individual expression.
- Develop and facilitate developmentally appropriate ceramic art classes that are engaging and accessible.
- Submit lesson plans and supply lists for each class, camp, or workshop.
- Independently set up, take down, and maintain program space.
- Provide a safe, positive, and inclusive learning environment for all students.
- Maintain, and guide participants in maintaining, a clean and safe studio environment.
- Option to develop new program offerings and content.

Required skills include:

- Able to assess age appropriateness of lessons and materials.
- Classroom management.
- Strong communication, interpersonal, and relationship-building skills.
- Effective problem-solving skills.
- Ability to work independently with initiative, as well as collaboratively within a team.
